1. The StB (Státní bezpečnost) had regional headquarters in all large towns of the CSR, district headquarters in all cities. There were no StB offices in villages but all of them had many StB agents and informers. The SNB (Sbor národní bezpečnosti) also had regional headquarters in all large towns of the CSR, frequently located in the same buildings as the StB; it had district headquarters in all cities. In contrast to the StB, the SNB had substations in all villages with a population of over one thousand people.

2. The StB and SNB Headquarters in Bohemia were located as follows:
